PROSPECTUS OF THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS.
GLASGOW, KY., December 27, 1857.
Dear Sir:-Having disposed of my Printing Office in Elizabethville, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating my business, I have the pleasure to announce to you that I have commenced the publication of a newspaper, entitled "THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Literature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arts and Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on our part will be spared to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general welfare of the community.
An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, containing a variety of interesting and instructive matter in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business and using practical judgment, we are confident that we will be enabled to secure to our subscribers the interests to which the "Free Press" will be devoted.
American Politics at the present time, may be said justly to be a chaotic state. We do not do sign, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation and no more to discuss the merits of the various parties and candidates. We are conscientiously opposed to the present and the prospect of a future administration. We regard the Democratic party, as now constituted, essentially an alien party, and consider its aims and purposes, as avowed by its organs, practiced by its leaders, and developed in the present campaign, to be in direct and violent opposition to the principles of the American people, and to the principles of the American Republic. We believe that the only way to secure the permanent and true interests of the people, is to secure the permanent and true interests of the American Republic. We believe that the only way to secure the permanent and true interests of the American Republic, is to secure the permanent and true interests of the American people. # THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.
THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1858.
FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS,
GEORGE R. MCKEE,
OF PULASKI COUNTY.

In another column we give to our readers Gov. Wise's letter to the anti-Lecompton meeting at Philadelphia. It is beyond all doubt the most sensibly written and most conservative letter that we have ever seen from the hand of that erratic genius. There are many of its sentiments which must recommend themselves to every sensible and thoughtful man in the South, and we hail it as an evidence that some of the rankest of the fire-eaters have not been so blinded by sectional hate and fury as to lose all sight of political fairness and common justice. We have little respect for Gov. Wise, although we admit his unquestioned talents; but, on the contrary, we think that he is actuated solely by motives of personal aggrandizement even in his honesty. With his keen powers of perception he has discovered that, in this case, "Honesty is the best policy," and has therefore determined to consult his own interests and act with discretion and prudence. He has sense enough to see that there will be a reaction in the South, that he people desire only what is fair, and that they do not desire to extend their institutions into States whose inhabitants are bitterly opposed to them. The southern people have long contended for right and justice to themselves, and they will not consent to wrong and betray others. The sooner that the politicians at Washington discover this fact and trim their sails, the better for themselves and the country.

Mr. KING'S SPEECH.—In another column we give the speech of Speaker King upon the Apportionment bill. His remarks were characterized by great good sense and firmness of purpose. The Sag-Nichts throughout the State are howling because the American Senate did not choose to pass an unfair apportionment bill made out for them by the Locomotive House of Representatives. Well, let them howl. Their cries on this subject will be utterly drowned by their discordant and sectional yells upon other issues. They will be too busily occupied in ruling out members of their own party to indulge in the usual quantity of foul abuse against the Americans. The Democrats of the House got up an unfair and unconstitutional apportionment bill, bearing upon its face the legitimate and unmistakable evidences of partisan chicanery and of an attempt to overreach the Americans by gerrymandering the State; the American Senators not agreeing with the House upon the propriety of passing such a bill, sent to the House a bill of their own founded upon upright and equitable principles; the House, not thinking that this bill would put the State entirely under foreign Democratic control, refused to accept the Senate's bill, but sent their own bill back as a substitute; and because the Americans would not consent to be thus overruled, the Democratic press denounces them in most bitter terms and blames them for no apportionment of the State being made. The people of Kentucky are too sensible to be caught by any such absurd nonsense.

The Mormon War.
On Thursday evening last, a meeting for the purpose of raising a company for the new volunteer regiment was held in Lexington, and about forty young and active men enrolled their names. The officers were elected on Friday, and are as follows: LOWRY J. BEARD, Captain; GEORGE R. HARRISON, 1st Lieutenant; WM. T. SCOTT, 2nd Lieutenant; JOHN W. WHITNEY, 3rd Lieutenant; J. CONINE, Orderly Sergeant.

We are personally acquainted with the most of these gentlemen, and can testify to their being high-toned, chivalrous young men. They are competent to discharge the duties of their several positions with unquestioned ability.

We understand that a meeting will be held in this city, to-night, at which all who desire to join the regiment are expected to come forward and enroll their names. An election for officers will probably be gone into. Frankfort ought to be able to raise a fine and gallant company for this war, and she probably will do it. There is no finer material in the State than can be found in this county, and the very best of it will probably volunteer. We hope to see a regiment raised which will add new lustre to the already brilliant fame of our noble old Commonwealth. Should the War Department determine to accept the services of volunteers at all, Kentucky's claims would be most prominent among the several sovereignties. Her sons proved their valor in Mexico, and the fame of their achievements has not yet been forgotten or overshadowed.

An official table shows that the expenditures of the Federal Government during the quarter ending December 31, 1857, were about ten millions of dollars more than the receipts in the same time. Of the disbursements, $3,284,168 66 were of an ordinary character. In the month of October the return of government stock for redemption was quite rapid, and ran up to more than two millions in a short time. The surplus, however, ran down so fast and so far under this demand that the Secretary was compelled to withdraw his proposals and redeem no more stock. The rapid decrease in the revenue from customs changed the entire financial programme of the Treasury Department, and forced the Government into an issue of Treasury notes.

Col. WADE HAMPTON, of South Carolina, died suddenly at one of his plantations in Louisiana on the 10th inst. Col. H. has long been a popular and influential citizen throughout the South. Few men bore the desire of station and office, says the Charleston Courier, have been so widely known as Col. Hampton; and the intelligence of his death will be received with a wide spread sorrow, such as perhaps could not be created by the death of any other private citizen.

SPECIAL EXPORTS.—The exports of specie from New York to foreign ports for the week ending the 6th inst., were $2,928,271—making a total since January 1st, 1855, of $7,673,888. Same time in 1857, $1,087,955; same time in 1856, $1,044,344; same time in 1855, $116,621; same time in 1854, $1,845,682; same time in 1853, $747,679; same time in 1852, $2,884,990.

For the Commonwealth.
To Many Voters of Woodford.
My attention has been called to an invitation in the Daily Commonwealth of the 9th inst., requesting, in a complimentary manner, that I would consent to become a candidate for re-election to the office of Presiding Judge of this county. In answer, will say, that I neither seek nor decline the position that I am asked to take upon that question. I see the name of a gentleman used in connection with that office whose politics correspond with my own, and were I voluntarily to present myself for the same office, confusion or at least embarrassment, would result to the party; and whilst I would be the first to repudiate a partisan Judge, and have no respect for one who would prove himself such, yet I conceive a true patriot may become a candidate of a party, and all parties recognize the practice. When we draw the distinction between a candidate and the officer my position will be approved.

I am an American in the fullest sense of the word, by birth, education, feeling, and action. The promotion of those principles is an object with me, more than office; and whatever may tend to promote the principles of that party, which I conceive to be the most pure and safe, and indeed the only principles upon which our great Republic can safely rest—will meet my hearty approval.

Respectfully &c.,
R. C. GRAVES.
VERMILION, Feb. 17th, 1858.

CRIME IN NEW YORK.—Mr. Tallmadge, General Superintendent of Police in New York, has made a report to the Board of Commissioners, from which we gather the following facts, touching the amount of crime in New York during the past three months. It will be seen that, but for the foreign element of the population, there would be but small necessity for a police force. Whole number of arrests amounts to 12,778, of which, excluding colored persons, 2,374 were natives, and 10,779 foreigners, classified as follows:

Irish	8,000	Swedes	6
German	1,223	West Indies	5
Spanish	11	Colored Persons	225
Poles	16	Portuguese	1
Canadians	55	Danes	1
English	577	Cubans	1
Scotch	210	Swiss	3
French	85	Hollanders	3
Italians	57	Welsh	2

Forty thousand and ninety four poor and destitute persons have been accommodated with lodgings, of whom seven-eighths were foreigners. The same style of things, statistics of crime in our city, present; indeed, nearly three-fourths of all the money expended for prison and poor houses, in our great cities, goes by reason of the presence of foreign vagabonds among us. Tax payers are bled profusely to support European lazzaroni and loafers. Let the reader weigh well the figures we give, and which materially tell the story of Philadelphia, as well as they do for New York; 12,778 arrests for crime in three months, 10,779 of these foreigners, and 8,000 Irish! Ten-twelfths of the whole amount of crime of foreign growth, and three-fourths of that from "swate Ireland!" Well may "Old Molly" boast that she has taken possession of us, body and soul. Never was conquest more perfect.

FRANKFORT THEATRE.—We know that it will be only necessary to state that Mrs. MEKKER will have a benefit to-night to ensure a large audience at the theatre. The play is one in which she is particularly excellent. Her charming naïveté of manner in the character of Parthena is enough to bewitch, entrance, delight, madden, and then subdue any barbarian. If the spirit of Ingomar himself were to visit the earth it would be melted and won by Mrs. MEKKER's beautiful rendition of Parthena. She has never failed to elicit the most enthusiastic applause whenever she has appeared in this character, and it is very appropriately brought forward on the occasion of her benefit. We hope that the theatre will be well filled, and entertain little doubt but that the audience will be fully as much delighted with this play as we have frequently been.

A FRACAS IN THE TENNESSEE SENATE.—The Senators from Maury and Shelby counties, Messrs. Whitthorne and Walker, varied the proceedings of that body on Monday by engaging in a small fist-fight. The circumstances, as we learn them from the Nashville Union & American, are: Mr. Whitthorne rose to a point of order. Mr. Walker, interrupting, said the gentleman from Maury had risen to a point of order, but was proceeding to the discussion of something else. Mr. Whitthorne replied, that showed how little he knew about it. Mr. Walker rejoined that Mr. Whitthorne had been drunk all the morning and wondered if he thought him so. Mr. Whitthorne retorted that it was a d-d lie. Whereupon Mr. Walker struck him in the face with a book, and the parties clinched. They were separated without material injury to either; and the matter was reported the next morning as amicably and honorably adjusted, both making apologies to the Senate for the violation of its dignity and decorum.

MR. EVERETT AND THE RICHMOND SOUTH.—The Richmond South contains a most unbecoming attack upon the Hon. Edward Everett, in reference to his anticipated visit to that city on the occasion of the inauguration of the State of Washington. The Baltimore American replies:

"The article does great injustice to Mr. Everett. The writer in his excess of zeal for Southern institutions, forgets the common rules of good breeding; and wantonly insults an invited guest; probably flushed with the success of a similar exploit upon the Hon. Henry Winter Davis, an additional triumph is expected in this instance."

The same editor has recently been assailing the Mount Vernon Association.

MCLAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL.—This valuable compound, we are glad to know, has become the most popular remedy in the United States. Nearly every family keeps it on hand. They find it saves physicians' bills. A small quantity given in season will ward off Fevers, or any other prevalent disease. See the advertisement in another column.

On the 8th inst., $189,014 50 of the notes of the old State Bank of Indiana at Indianapolis were destroyed.

Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne brings with her from California, as the net proceeds of thirteen months acting, the sum of $20,000.

The President has sent the nomination of Col. Johnson, of the Utah expedition, as brigadier general, to the Senate for confirmation.

Remarks of Mr. KING in the Senate on the 17th inst., upon the motion to discharge the committee of Conference on the apportionment bill.

Mr. KING said:
MR. SPEAKER, I beg the indulgence of the Senate for a few moments, whilst I give my reasons for opposing the discharge of the committee. It will be recollected that about the middle of the session, the Senate passed a bill apportioning the State into representation and Senatorial districts, and sent that bill to the House of Representatives for its approval or rejection. The dominant party in the Senate, thought then and believe now, that the bill sent to the House was a fair and constitutional bill, giving to both parties a due proportion of representation in both branches, as far as population and geographical position would admit. They were careful in arranging said bill so as to obviate as much as possible any objection that might be urged against it, by the dominant or opposing party in the House. Instead of the House carefully comparing our bill with the constitution, and considering it with calmness and due deliberation as become legislators, they, in hot haste, rejected our bill, and substituted one of their own in its place, and then sent it to the Senate. The subject being one of vital importance to the whole people of the State, and really of more importance this session than any other act of legislation, because it was required by the constitution, which we had all sworn to support, the Senate by its order referred the House bill to the appropriate committee for investigation and consideration, which committee, after more than two weeks careful investigation, reported the bill back to the Senate, with the opinion that it ought not to pass, because its provisions were in conflict with that clause of the constitution, which declares that "representation shall be equal and uniform;" and because, further, that unnatural and un-geographical districts were formed, some under and others largely over the ratio, thus forming and forcing districts for partisan purposes.

For instance the House bill gives the county of Jefferson but one member, when by the clear letter of the Constitution, she is entitled to two members in the House of Representatives; and so with the gallant county of Shelby, and other counties of the State. We are not at a loss to know, sir, why such a bill was thus formed, when we look back for a few years, and see what party has triumphed at the polls.

I regret, sir, that the opposition has thrown in to this discussion, and upon such a question as this, such bitter party feeling. It is a question that should rise above and beyond party, and be decided calmly, in view of our oaths and the constitution, and I trust that the committee will not be discharged from the consideration of the subject until the last moment of this session, but in a spirit of conciliation and compromise again meet the House committee and earnestly go to work and form a compromise bill that will meet the views of a majority of both Houses, and the requisitions of the constitution. The House of Representatives has not discharged its committee, and why discharge ours so long as we have time and opportunity to affect so desirable an object? If we discharge our committee, leaving the House committee still standing and ready to act, we give our opponents the advantage, and, as small as it is, they will be sure to seize it, and use it upon us with unscrupulous severity. The committee may not be enabled to do anything, but at all events let them try; so far as I am individually concerned, I confess my anxiety is great to see an apportionment bill passed just and fair in its provisions. I am inclined to think, from the indications around me, that the opposition in this chamber don't care much about the passage of an apportionment bill, although they talk much about the constitutional requisition; one thing is very evident, they are seeking by every means consistent with parliamentary rules, to throw us in a position of opposition to an apportionment bill; for one, I shall assume no such position. I again appeal to the Senate in the utmost sincerity, not to discharge the committee; they may agree before we adjourn.

The following is a copy of the act reported by Judge Douglas for the admission of Minnesota, and which Bright, Fitch, Jones, of Iowa, and Pugh, of Ohio, will not allow to be considered because its passage will admit Shields and Rice. The act reads:

A Bill for the admission of the State of Minnesota into the Union.

WHEREAS, An act of Congress was passed February twenty-six, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, entitled, "An act to authorize the people of the Territory of Minnesota to form a Constitution and State government preparatory to their admission into the Union on an equal footing with the original States;" and, whereas, the people of said Territory did, on the twenty-ninth day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, by delegates elected for that purpose, form for themselves a Constitution and State government, which is republican in form, and was ratified and adopted by the people, at an election held on the thirteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, for that purpose, in pursuance of said act of Congress; therefore—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Minnesota shall be one, and is hereby declared to be one of the United States of America, and admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatsoever. § 2. And be it further enacted, That said State shall be entitled to one representative, and such additional representatives, in Congress, as the population of said State, according to the census authorized by the act approved February twenty-six, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall show it to be entitled to according to the present ratio of representation, and no more.

[Correspondence of the Press.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1858.
The Lecompton Investigation Committee of the House met to organize last evening. Although the House, after a resort to parliamentary manoeuvres on the part of the minority to prevent any investigation, ordered, in the most decided terms and the most unequivocal manner, that there should be one, to make clear to all whether or not the Lecompton constitution had the approval of the people of Kansas, the committee unanimously voted that there should be no such investigation.

The majority of the committee voted down all inquiries into the legality of the votes, the returns, the frauds, &c., of the election held on the 4th day of January last. This is important, when it is remembered that on that day there was not only a vote on the Lecompton constitution but also a vote for State officers. The country desires, and those who voted for the investigation on the part of the House desire, I am sure, that the cloud of doubt which rests upon these votes shall be lifted; and it is apparent that this can be done alone by Congress or one of its committees.

It was also intimated by the majority of the committee that the inquiry shall be closed this week. It seems, therefore, that no valuable inquiry will be prosecuted.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says:
The Senate committee on Territories will report against the admission of Oregon at this time, on the ground that she has not sufficient population, that no urgent necessity exists for her immediate admission, and that her citizens do not desire it.

Senator Wilson has made a call on the President to furnish the instructions given to Mr. Meade, Minister to Brazil. It appears that the remarks made by Mr. Meade when presented to the Emperor, are decidedly offensive to the republicans, and they desire to know whether he was instructed by the President to make them. As soon as the Kansas question is disposed of it is believed the President will call the attention of Congress particularly to the state of our relations with Spain, and the necessity for the adoption of prompt and vigorous measures for the enforcement of redress for the outrages committed by that power upon our flag and citizens.

FURTHER FROM MEXICO.—The Extraordinary states that the representatives of the foreign powers had acknowledged the new Government, and argued that such was their duty. "Within the last seven weeks," it says, "we have had four distinct Governments—under the constitution, the plan of Tacubaya, the constitution again, and now we have the plan of Tacubaya, as reformed in Mexico. There could be no greater objection made to the present Government than to the second or third in the catalogue. All the others were recognized." The same paper states all the principal acts of the late Government, under the plan of Ayala, had been overthrown. "The Law-Lerdo, for the disamortization of church and corporation properties," it says, "has been annulled and the properties of the church restored; the Law Jarez, for the abolition of the ecclesiastical and military tribunals, has been annulled, and the fueros re-established."

The Extraordinary also says:
"The celebration of the new laws took place on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 25th. The military passed in review through our principal streets; the balconies were crowded with people, and from some balconies garlands were flung upon Gen. Osollo, the hero of the Acapulco. The usual crowd of dirty and ragged people filled the streets. As for popular enthusiasm there was none. The soldiers seemed well pleased, and the representatives of religious societies manifested the utmost satisfaction. Reports are current on the streets that already the new Government has filled the coffers of the treasury department, which have long been in the most desolate condition. It is understood that the clergy have loaned the Government over $1,000,000.

Only one house, that of Juan Jose Baz, is reported to have been sacked by the rabble, the pronunciados prohibiting excesses. No more than fifty lives are believed to have been lost on both sides; the wounded amounted to one hundred and twenty. Buildings, however, suffered greatly from the firing.

It has a finer thought ever been penned than that Knowles puts into the mouth of Virginia? "I hear a voice so soft that nothing comes 'Tis a faint silence."

A Benevolent Association, established for special endeavor for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Venereal and Epidemic diseases.

To all persons afflicted with Venereal diseases, such as SYPHILIS, GONORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, GONORRHEA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, the Vice of OXALIS, or SELF-ABUSE, &c., &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of these diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARTERED ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme urgency, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much neglected cause.

Just Published by the Association, a Report on Syphilis, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, in a sealed letter, enclosed in a paper OF CHARGE on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

By order of the Directors,
E. D. HEARTWELL, President.
